

UNC CHARLOTTE FACULTY-LED PROGRAM

FRANCE

FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN PARIS

Bonjour, Students!

Paris is the perfect place to explore 2000+ years of French civilization. Each day you spend in the city will feature a carefully organized program of activities based on material covered in the course, and your evenings will be free for relaxation. Students of all majors can benefit from this immersive exploration of historical attractions, and no French language skills are required. If you want to spend Spring Break with new-found friends in one of the world's most beautiful cities while earning 3 hours of UNC Charlotte course credit, then this is the program for you!

Your Faculty Directors,
Jane Houston & Isabelle Buhot-Batista
